

MENTE LOCALE – VISIONI SUL TERRITORIO 2021 COMPETITION

International competition for audio-visual productions dedicated to the narration of territories

RULES AND REGULATIONS

PREMISE

Mente Locale - Visioni sul territorio, organised by CARTA/BIANCA, is the first Italian festival aiming to promote and enhance the narration of territories through audio-visual media.

The narration of a territory is a complex and fascinating task, in which authorial and cultural aspects can prevail at times, or whose aim can be that of touristic promotion, economic development and even regeneration, sustainability and new lifestyles: this integrated and interdisciplinary approach is what characterises the festival.

For the year 2021, given the ongoing health emergency, the festival will have a special edition, with initiatives throughout the year and online activities that will complement those in presence in the festival territories, in Emilia, among the province of Modena and Bologna.

The screening of the movies selected for the competition Mente Locale - Visioni sul territorio Festival will take place from 17th to 21st November 2021 and the winners of the competition will be announced on November 21st.

The program of activities of the festival, currently being defined, will be published on the website of the festival: www.festivalmentelocale.it.

THE COMPETITION

The competition is reserved to Italian and international documentaries with no distinction of duration, techniques, format, as long as they focus on the narration of a territory, considered – in a broader sense – a narration of sites, people, organisations, knowledge and traditions linked to a particular place or geographical area. Works that have been completed from 2019 up to now can be accepted to the competition.

The eighth edition includes the following categories:

- Mente Locale - Global Vision

Mente Locale is open to works and authors from all over the world. It provides an award of Euro 2.000,00 for the best documentary and an award of Euro 1.000,00 for the best documentary produced in Italy. A cash prize of Euro 500,00 for a work of the competition is provided by Consorzio del Formaggio Parmigiano

Reggiano, partner of festival Mente locale. The prize Sayonara, provided by the company Sayonara Film, to the best short documentary, which consists of a 12-month distribution contract worth Euro 2,000.00.

- Mente Locale - Visions of the Italian territory

Section of works that narrates the Italian territory. Within this section, Touring Club Italiano – historical association that has created the notion of tourism in Italy, partner of the Festival since 2016 – confirms also for this edition a special mention dedicated to the best work focused on the narration of the Italian territory with the aim of dissemination, enhancement and/or touristic promotion of the cultural heritage. MiBACT Emilia-Romagna Regional Secretariat, partner of the festival since 2018, will award the special mention 'Filmare per Bene' to the best work in competition on the theme of cultural heritage or promotion of the cultural identity of the Emilia-Romagna region.

The works entered in the competition will automatically participate in the Visions on Italian territory section if they meet the requirements.

To participate:

In order to participate it is necessary to submit the work through the platform FilmFreeway;
