

MENTE LOCALE – VISIONI SUL TERRITORIO 2022 COMPETITION

International competition for audio-visual productions dedicated to the narration of territories

RULES AND REGULATIONS

PREMISE

Mente Locale - Visioni sul territorio is the first Italian festival aiming to promote and enhance the narration of territories through audio-visual media.

Born in 2014 and now in its ninth edition, Local Mind - Visions on the territory offers every year a selection of international documentary production on the theme of the story of the territory.

The festival promotes the values of equality, dialogue and freedom, respect for the territory and environmental sustainability.

The screening of the movies selected for the competition Mente Locale - Visioni sul territorio will take place from 16th to 19th November 2022 and the winners of the competition will be announced on November 20th.

The program of activities of the festival, currently being defined, will be published on the website of the festival: www.festivalmentelocale.it.

THE COMPETITION

The competition is reserved to Italian and international documentaries with no distinction of duration, techniques, format, as long as they focus on the narration of a territory, considered – in a broader sense – as a narration of sites, people, organisations, knowledge and traditions linked to a particular place or geographical area.

Works that have been completed from 2020 up to now can be accepted to the competition.

The organising committee of the festival will pre-select the documentaries that will be evaluated by a jury composed by Leena Pasanen (former director of Dok Leipzig and Biografilm Festival), Gianfranco Cabiddu (director and screenwriter), Michele Manzolini (director and expert in archives cinema), Enza Negroni (President of DER-Documentaristi Emilia-Romagna) and Marco Cucco (Professor at DAR-University of Bologna), for the assignment of the following prizes and special mentions:

- MENTE LOCALE – Global Vision, 2,000 Euro award to the best documentary of the contest

- MENTE LOCALE – Archives Visions, 1,000 Euro award for the documentary that makes the best use of archive materials
- Consorzio del Formaggio Parmigiano Reggiano - Award of 500 Euros to the documentary that best reflects the values of the Consorzio
- Sayonara award, provided by the company Sayonara Film, to the best short documentary, (lasting a maximum of 15 minutes including opening and closing credits), addressed to all authors who have not yet signed an agreement with a distribution company for the Italian territory, and consisting of a 12-month contract with Sayonara Film for the distribution of the work. To compete for the Sayonara award, it is necessary to send a description of the screenings already done by the documentary. Musical rights must be made free at least for the Italian and / or world territory
- Sound and territory - Award to the director of the opera with the best soundtrack, which consists of a frame drum made by the craftsman Gianluca Carta
- Special Mention assigned by a jury of students from the DAR - Department of Arts of the University of Bologna
- TOURING CLUB ITALIANO Special Mention - to the documentary that most corresponds to the values of the historic association that created the concept of tourism in Italy
- Special Mention REGIONAL SECRETARIAT MIC Emilia-Romagna - 'Filmare per bene' to the documentary that better narrates cultural heritage theme of promoting cultural identity and the landscape of the Emilia-Romagna region.

To participate:

In order to participate it is necessary to submit the work through the platform FilmFreeway.

Deadlines:

First deadline: May 21st - Registration fee Euro 5,00

Second deadline: from June 1st to July 3rd - Registration fee Euro 10,00

In case the work is not in Italian, Italian subtitles are preferable. In any case the work must include at least English subtitles. It is also necessary to provide the .srt file of the subtitles or the dialogue list of the film in italian or in english.

When registering the work via FilmFreeway platform, the following must be attached: 2 still photos and the author's photo, both in high resolution, his bio-filmography, the synopsis of the work and the director's notes.

In case of selection of the documentary, the authors will be contacted by the festival organization to send the file for the screening.

The deadline for the application is July 3rd, 2022.

The verdict of the organisation and the jury cannot be contested. Those selected to participate in the audio-visual competition will be notified no later than 10th of September 2022 with the date and time of when their work will be screened and a meeting with the author will take place. Those coming from outside Emilia-Romagna region will be hosted by the festival for one day and one night, if the conditions related to the health emergency will allow the screenings to be held in the theaters. The travelling expenses will not be covered by the festival.

Sending the work implies a non-exclusive authorisation to the festival's organisers to share with the public – through the official website and other means – short clips of these works, as well as images and information related. Participation in the competition and submission of the works implies unreserved acceptance of this regulation.

The email addresses of all subscribers will be included in the festival mailing list.

The screenings of the works selected for the competition will take place in the festival venues between 16th and 20th November 2022 in a manner complying with any restrictive measures regarding the containment and management of the epidemiological emergency from COVID-19. In addition, streaming screenings of the films in competition may be envisaged, for a maximum period of 48 hours. There is no provision for the recognition of any fee to the producer of the work, nor to the director, nor to anyone else who claims to do so for the screenings of the work selected for the competition during the festival. By submitting their application to participate in the competition, the proposer agrees that the work entered will be screened in the festival venues between 16th and 20th November 2022 and in streaming for a maximum period of 48 hours days.

RESPONSIBILITIES

All the contents of the works presented to the competition (images, sounds, animation) must respect the current regulation of Copyrights, must not constitute plagiarism and/or forgery of other works and must not violate in any way the rights of other people (copyrights, image rights, etc). The organisation of the festival is not responsible in this sense.

The participation to the competition implies the complete and exclusive personal responsibility of the author for any possible irregularity in this matter; the organisation has the right to exclude with unquestionable decision and to revoke any prize to works presenting irregularities. In any case, the participant to the competition should be committed to keep the organization of the festival undamaged and external to any request or litigation related to the screening of the work, except for the organization's right of compensation for damage. For any possible litigation, the Court of Bologna is in charge.
